which is 26th January 1887.

4 If this Consolidation were carried into effect it would give promotion to the grade of Senior Hospital Assistant an intrinsic value which it does not at present possess and it would not be likely to cost Government much as Hospital Assistants do not retire until they are compelled to by age or ill health.

5. There are no Senior Hospital Assistants in the Civil Medical Department of the Madras Presidency but in the Military Department there are and their grade pay is Rs 80/- per mensem which being substantive or grade pay entitles them to have their pensions calculated on it
